

CIArb Americas Conference

Arbitration in the Americas – views from the profession, the practice, the providers and the parties we serve

7 October 2022

Miami

7 October 2022
9:00 – 17:15 EST
(GMT-4)

Hosted by
Bilzin Sumberg

Join CIArb's seven Americas Branches (Bahamas, Bermuda, Brazil, Canada, Caribbean, New York and North America) in Miami on 7 October 2022 for its first ever CIArb Americas Conference.

Leading arbitrators, institutions and corporate counsel will highlight the unique importance of alternative dispute resolution (ADR) within the Americas, the efficiency of which allows the world's economy to remain operative and functional even during times of great economic uncertainty.

You will hear different perspectives on arbitration in the Americas from:

- Practitioners – who will discuss cutting-edge issues and share their journeys to the field
- ADR providers – offering insight on how they select their rosters
- Judges – who will highlight the unique interplay between the courts and ADR, and
- Users – sharing what they're looking for in the selection of arbitrators.

Sessions include:

- A Conversation Among Leading Arbitrators: Best Practices and Perspectives Navigating the Current Economic and Political Landscape
- Court-Connected ADR in the Americas
- Counsels' Criteria for Selecting Dispute Resolution Providers and Arbitrators
- ADR Providers' Roundtable: An Opportunity to Broaden Your ADR Practice and Elevate Your Profile

We look forward to seeing you in person in Miami or virtually.

REGISTER NOW