

2026 Annual Retreat

Join other Ciarb members in beautiful Atlanta, GA. for an engaging program of networking and educational sessions. All Ciarb members are welcome regardless of their Branch.

Agenda

Arbitration in Motion: Ethics, AI, and the Corporate Playbook

Thursday, 28 May

Atlanta offices, 600 Peachtree Street, N.E., Suite 3000

6:00 – 7:30 Welcome reception sponsored by Troutman Pepper
Open to Ciarb NAB retreatants and ATIAS members

Friday, 29 May

Womble Bond Dickinson – Atlanta Offices

1331 Spring St. NW, Suite 1400

8:30 – 9:30 Networking breakfast – Sponsored by JAMS

- 9:30 – 9:45 Welcome & opening remarks by Cecilia Flores Rueda, NAB Chair
- 9:45 – 10:45 Panel 1 – The Evolving Arbitration Landscape (2026 Outlook)
A high-level tour of what’s changing in arbitration today, from efficiency tools and streamlined procedures to shifting enforcement dynamics and rising expectations around cost, speed, and case management.
- Moderator: Ann Ryan Robertson, ARR Arbitration
Panelist: David Harrell, Troutman Pepper Locke
Panelist: Carl Ginsberg, Ginsberg ADR
Panelist: Joyce Klemmer, JAMS
- 10:45 – 11:00 Break
- 11:00 – 12:00 Panel 2 – Panel 2 – Case Management Tools
This panel will explore the practical case management tools that are reshaping efficiency in international arbitration. From bifurcation and early dismissal mechanisms to tailored limits on document production and the effective use of virtual hearings, the discussion will focus on how tribunals and counsel can streamline proceedings without compromising due process. Panelists will share strategic insights and real-world experiences on deploying these tools to reduce time and cost, enhance procedural clarity, and meet the evolving expectations of users in complex disputes.
- Moderator: Victoria Alvarez, Troutman Pepper Locke
Panelist: Jennifer Ersin, Bradley
Panelist: Alexandre de Gramont, Womble Bond Dickinson
Panelist: René Delieux Campos, Delieux Abogados
- 12:00 – 12:30 Lunch service
- 12:30 – 13:15 Keynote address “Arbitration in Motion: Leading the Profession Through Ethics, Innovation, and Corporate Expectations” by Cesar Pereira, Justen, Pereira, Olivera & Talamini, Global Ciarb Chair.
- 13:15 – 13:30 Q&A with Cesar Pereira
- 13:30 – 13:45 Break

- 13:45 – 14:45 Panel 3 – Ethics in the Age of AI: Independence, Disclosure, and New Frontiers
A practical discussion of the ethical pressure points confronting tribunals and counsel, from traditional concerns around conflicts and repeat appointments to emerging questions about AI disclosure, evidentiary authenticity, and due process when technology enters the hearing room.
- Moderator: Andrew B. Flake, The Flake Law Firm
Panelist: Linda Beyea, VP Innovation, AAA-ICDR
Panelist: Shelby Grubbs, JAMS
Panelist: Glenn Hendrix, Hendrix Dispute Resolution
Panelist: Lisa Powell, Fisher Broyles
- 14:45 – 15:00 Closing remarks
- 15:00 – 16:30 Cocktail reception
- 17:00 Networking dinner at South City, 1144 Crescent Ave NE

Saturday, 30 May

- 8:30 – 10:00 Breakfast - Strengthening CIArb Training Programs:
A Strategic Dialogue conducted by John Pinney
- 10:00 – 12:30 Outing to the National Center for Civil and Human Rights
Downtown Atlanta | Tickets: $20/person | Typical visit: 90 minutes – 2 hours
- Afternoon Free time/explore Atlanta

Accommodation

While hotel accommodations are on your own, we suggest staying at the Kimpton Shane Hotel by IHG, which is located next to the venue and is available at a preferential rate of US$185 per night.

Please use this link Ciarb Retreat or call 866-660-6699.

Cost

Ciarb members discounted Early Bird Registration through April 30: US 495

Ciarb members after April 30, 2024: US 595

Ciarb friends and colleagues discounted Early Bird Registration through April 30: US 595

Ciarb friends and colleagues after April 30, 2024: US 695

Saturday dinner: US 150

Outing to the National Center for Civil and Human Rights US 50

Registration

Please register early to ensure space is available for you.

Please book your place here
or scan the QR code

